Reflections From Pastor Tom

Dear Friends,

This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday and I will be preaching on the story of Pentecost, Acts 2:1-21. My title will be “Playing With Fire.”

At Pentecost, one of the prominent images is fire. Interestingly enough, there was no actual fire present. “Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them.” Nevertheless, fire is associated with Pentecost - the power of fire and the contagious nature of it. The Holy Spirit moved among the disciples and among the people gathered there like wildfire.

Fire is powerful and dangerous. Fire can be helpful but also can be destructive. We have to take care in working with fire. The same is somewhat true with God’s Spirit and the power of faith. We can do much good but also much evil in the name of religion.

Blessings,
Pastor Tom
