Reflections From Pastor Tom

Dear Friends,

We are hoping that this treacherous weather is over, so for this Sunday, I will be preaching on Matthew 5:13-20 and my title will be “Better Than Good.” (Yes, I am setting aside “The Second Choice” although I reserve the right to preach it at some later date.) We will have communion on March 1, but feel free to bring your food for Nourish Up/Loaves and Fishes this Sunday.

As children, we were frequently told to “be good.” That meant to follow the rules, stay out of trouble, and listen to and obey your parents and teachers. The people of Jesus’s time, like us, were trying to be good. They were trying to follow the Roman laws, the religious laws, and the laws of their local community. Then Jesus came along and told them they had to be better. He claimed their right living needed to exceed the right living of their religious authority figures.

Jesus said many things that we understand would have been received as “good news.” This stuff about being better wouldn’t have sounded like good news to anyone. Think about the burdens they already had and Jesus was asking MORE from them. On Sunday, we will be talking about how this was actually good news for them and it is good news for us. I look forward to seeing you in worship. Stay safe and warm!

Blessings,
Pastor Tom
